

2018 International Travel Trends

After much deliberation, this year's list includes Abu Dhabi for planning major new developments, PyeongChang, South Korea for hosting the Winter Olympics, and Tbilisi, Georgia for being the next emerging must-visit destination.

 PINTEREST

 FACEBOOK

 TWITTER

 EMAIL

The Caribbean

Travel to the Caribbean has declined, in part by those believing the entire region was heavily damaged by hurricanes Irma and Maria. But the reality is the majority of the Caribbean wasn't affected, and the islands that were hit are slowly rebounding and in need of tourism dollars. Of those affected, Puerto Rico, particularly San Juan, is readying for visitors. La Concha Resort, Hotel El Convento, Condado Vanderbilt, Condado Palm Inn & Suites, DoubleTree by Hilton San Juan and San Juan Marriott Resort are among the hotels currently taking reservations. Elsewhere in the region, there is a spate of new hotel openings, starting with the mega Baha Mar resort in the Bahamas. Turks and Caicos welcomed The Shore Club and Sailrock Resort, St. Kitts added a Park Hyatt, and Belize introduced Itz'ana Resort. Get more information about visiting the Caribbean this winter here.