DISCOVERING THE BEST CARIBBEAN SIPPING RUM

CLEMENT RHUM VIEUX AGRICOLE VSOP - Martinique

On the nose almost resembles a scotch whisky, with the charred oak aromas rising out of the glass mixed with vanilla, spices and floral notes. On the palate, the spirit develops an elegant herbal quality, with brown sugar, roasted coffee and fruit flavors of red grapes, mango and banana.

25

DIPLOMATICO RESERVA SPECIAL – Venezuela

Bold, dark, fruity and full bodied. Sugary honey and butterscotch are accented with sage and thyme notes and a hint of citrus peel. Both sweet and hot spices give it a pleasing warmth that never ignites into a full burn, just creates a nice tingle.

DOORLY'S 12YO RUM – Barbados

The nose is subtle, primarily vanilla and oak. Much like the first sip of a fine Scotch, the Doorly's 12 immediately lets you know you're tasting something exceptional. Oak, vanilla, fruit, and spice are in ideal harmony - all present but none dominating.

20

ZACAPA 23YO GRAN SOLERA - Guatemala

Enduringly one of the most pleasurable dark rums to sip neat. At first the sweet notes of roasted coffee, butterscotch, vanilla and dark chocolate appear, then some fresh citrus and apricot refresh the palate with green herbal accents, nutmeg and ginger.

ENGLISH HARBOUR 10YO - Antigua

A well-aged, limited edition Antiguan rum, blended from rums aged between 10 and 25 years. This was matured in bourbon barrels. The nose is thick and full with notes of molasses and Demerara. Some smoke rises with a touch of dry fruit and fudge. The palate is spiced and rich with tropical fruits and buttery toffee apple.

RON NAUD 15YO - Panama

A range of aromas characterised by notes of coconut, Tonka beans and vanilla sugar. The aromatic strength recalls the typicality of the sugarcane. Generous and marked with sweet patisserie notes, liquorice and cinnamon mixed with hints of wood and smoke carried by the bourbon cask ageing.

THE JAPANESE WHISKY

NIKKA COFFEY GRAIN

28

MATSUI MIZUNARA CASK

Japanese single mal of the year 2020, from the Kurayoshi Distillery comes The Matsui Mizunara Cask, which unsurprisingly has been aged in rare Japanese Mizunara oak. A velvety mouthfeel with rich oak, cinnamon, ginger and a touch of chili spice, balanced by toffee sweetness.

MARS MALTAGE COSMO WHISKEY

On the palate, it has a full mouthfeel, with sweetness balanced by spice, fresh white pepper and grassy notes, butterscotch and smoky uplift at the end. The finish is intense but not overlong with more stewed fruit and toffee with a touch of copper bitterness.

29

SHIBUI PURE MALT 10YO

This amazing Japanese Whisky is a 100% malted barley whisky produced in Japan from both a Japanese malt whisky and a Scottish Lowlands malt whisky. It is matured in three types of barrels: ex-bourbon, oloroso sherry and Mizunara oak casks.
